Terms of usage

- During the photography/film/recording work, the visitor rules and regulations are to be complied with and disturbances of the general visitor activities to be avoided.
- The applicant guarantees that the necessary caution will be exercised while working in the buildings and on the grounds of the former inmates' camp of Mittelbau-Dora Concentration Camp and when photographing/filming individual objects, and that the general smoking ban will be observed. He/She will be liable for all damage brought about by the photography/film/recording work.
- No changes may be made to the camp grounds or the historical rooms.
- The artificial lighting of light-sensitive objects is permitted only in consultation with the responsible custodian. In art exhibitions, the use of flashes and halogen lamps is prohibited in the interest of the objects' protection.
- To the extent that the copyrights for illustrations, films, texts or artworks in exhibitions are not held by the foundation, they must be obtained before publication. The same applies to the rights of foundation visitors and employees to their own likenesses.
- The production of photographic, graphic or other illustrations, for example in the form of videotapes, is permitted only for private, scholastic and academic purposes as well as for the purposes of current news coverage. The Buchenwald and Mittelbau-Dora Memorials Foundation must be named as the source.
- Utilization for all other purposes requires written permission in advance. Every other form of utilization and application, particularly every utilization for advertising purposes as well as the transfer to a third party are expressly prohibited. News and image agencies are exempt from this prohibition.
- A copy of the broadcast or publication must be sent to the Buchenwald and Mittelbau-Dora Memorials Foundation without being asked for.
- In the event of a violation, the authorization can be revoked at any time. The applicant is to keep this permit with him at all times while working, and to present it to employees of the memorial or the security service upon request.

This permit is not valid for the tunnel system! There special rules and regulations apply, and a special permit is therefore required.

We apologize for any inconvenience caused by these regulations and thank you for your cooperation. In case of authorization, I accept that these terms as binding.
